Target Language: Adjective Order (Opinion > Size > Color > Material) and Opinion Adjectives.

Activity 1: The Dress Code Consultant (Roleplay)

Dynamics: Pairs (Consultant and Client)

Instructions: The client has a specific event (e.g., a formal law firm interview or a casual creative tech job start). The consultant must suggest an outfit using at least three adjectives in the correct order. Example: "You should wear a sophisticated, slim-fit, navy wool suit."

Activity 2: The Designer Pitch

Dynamics: Small Groups (3-4 students)

Instructions: Groups design a new "Modern School Uniform." They must present their design to the class, justifying their choices with descriptive language. Example: "Our uniform features a trendy, oversized, grey cotton hoodie to ensure students feel relaxed yet stylish."

Activity 3: The Fashion Police (Critique & Justify)

Dynamics: Mingle / Whole Class

Instructions: The teacher shows images of various work and school outfits (some professional, some "disasters"). Students must critique the outfits using specific opinion adjectives and correct adjective sequencing to explain why it works or fails.
